Elektra is the story of a young woman driven by an unquenchable thirst for revenge. Her father, Agamemnon, was murdered by her mother, Clytemnestra, and her lover, Aegisthus. Elektra has spent years plotting and waiting for the opportunity to avenge her father's death.

When her brother, Orestes, returns from exile, Elektra sees her chance. Together, they plan and execute Clytemnestra's murder. But the act of revenge has unintended consequences, and Elektra is left to face the guilt and consequences of her actions.
