

Not Dark Yet: A DCI Banks Novel (Inspector Banks Novels 27)

The Inspector Banks novels are a gripping and acclaimed crime fiction series that has captured the attention of readers worldwide. Written by the talented British author Peter Robinson, the series follows the complex and enigmatic Detective Chief Inspector Alan Banks as he investigates a diverse array of challenging and often disturbing cases in the fictional Yorkshire town of Eastvale.

The Man Behind the Badge: DCI Alan Banks

DCI Banks is a fascinating and deeply flawed protagonist. A brilliant detective with an intuitive understanding of human nature, he is also haunted by personal demons and struggles with alcoholism. Banks is a man of contradictions, capable of great compassion and empathy, while also being ruthless and driven. His complex personality and inner turmoil make him a compelling and relatable character.

Exploring the Dark Underbelly of Eastvale

The Inspector Banks novels are not for the faint of heart. Robinson paints a vivid and unflinching portrait of the dark underbelly of Eastvale, a town where secrets and violence lurk beneath the surface of everyday life. From gruesome murders to twisted psychological games, Banks and his team encounter the full spectrum of human depravity.
