A Canvas for Architectural Exploration

The Red Address serves as a canvas for Lundberg's architectural prowess, showcasing her mastery of form, space, and light. The building's unconventional shape, reminiscent of a fragmented puzzle, creates a dynamic play of angles and planes. Large expanses of glass blur the boundaries between interior and exterior, inviting natural light to flood the living spaces. Each room within The Red Address is meticulously designed, boasting unique character and purpose. The result is a symphony of architectural elements that coalesce into a cohesive and captivating whole.
