You Go To Prom is a micro mini romance novella about two high school students who fall in love at prom. It's a sweet and steamy story about first love, promposals, and happily ever afters.

The Story

Sarah is a shy and awkward high school junior who has never been asked to prom. She spends her days dreaming about her perfect prom night, but she doesn't think it will ever happen. Then, one day, the most popular boy in school, Jake, asks her to prom. Sarah is overjoyed, and she starts to believe that her dreams might come true.

On the night of prom, Sarah and Jake arrive at the dance together. They look stunning, and they immediately become the center of attention. Sarah is finally living her dream, and she is happier than she has ever been.

As the night goes on, Sarah and Jake dance and talk. They get to know each other better, and they realize that they have a lot in common. They both love music, movies, and books. They both want to go to college and have a successful career.

By the end of the night, Sarah and Jake are completely in love. They have found their perfect prom date, and they know that they will be together forever.
